BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN COLLEGE OF BANKRUPTCY FOUNDATION
(a Virginia Nonprofit Corporation)

These bylaws of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation (the “Foundation”) have been adopted and amended through October ___, 2022.

ARTICLE I

Officers; Agent; Seal

1. Purposes of the Foundation. The Foundation supports and funds projects that improve the quality of bankruptcy law and practice, and promote the ends of justice as well as access to justice, through its financial support of bankruptcy and insolvency-related legal service programs in the United States. The Foundation raises and manages funds and provides grants and other financial support consistent with the goals of the American College of Bankruptcy (the “ACB”), which is dedicated to enhancing professionalism, scholarship, and service in bankruptcy and insolvency law and practice, and to promoting diversity, equity and inclusion within the organization and across the insolvency profession.

2. Offices. The principal office of the Foundation and such other offices as it may establish from time to time shall be located at such place or places either within or without the State of Virginia, as may be designated by the Board of Directors or by the officers pursuant to authority from the Board of Directors.

3. Seal. The seal of the Foundation, if any, shall be in such form as the Board of Directors prescribes.

ARTICLE II

Directors

1. Powers. The affairs of the Foundation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall possess, and may exercise, any and all powers granted to the Foundation by law, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws.

2. Number. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than ten (10) nor more than twenty-five (25) Directors, the exact number to be determined by the Board of Directors of the ACB. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased by amendment of the Bylaws provided that no such amendment may reduce the total number of Directors to less than three (3), and no reduction in the number of Directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any Director in office at the time such amendment becomes effective. Up to five (5) Directors may be Senior Directors, who are Fellows who at the time of their election are (i) 60 years or older, and (ii) so designated as Senior Directors.

3. Qualifications. Members of the Board of Directors need not be residents of Virginia. A Director may not serve for more than two consecutive terms, provided however, that (a) a Director elected to fill a vacancy in an existing term with less than one year remaining may serve two additional consecutive terms, and (b) the limitation on serving more than two consecutive terms set forth in this sentence does not apply to Senior Directors. A Foundation Director shall be an ACB Fellow. The ACB President shall be a voting, ex officio member of the Board of Directors, and two other members of the Board of Directors at the time of their election shall be persons who are either a Director, officer or Regent of the ACB. The immediate past Chair of the Board of Directors shall continue to serve as a non-voting, ex officio member of the Board of Directors for a period of two (2) years after the expiration of his/her term in office.

4. Election. The Board of Directors of the ACB shall elect the Directors of the Foundation at the time of the Annual Meeting of the ACB except that a vacancy may be filled at any time.

5. Term of Directors. Beginning in 2020, each Director shall be elected for a two-year term of the office. Directors elected before 2020 serving a first term shall be eligible to be elected for a second two (2) year term after completion of their first three (3) year term. Whenever the number of Directors is increased or decreased, new Directors (other than Senior Directors, who shall serve a single, two-year term as a Senior Director) shall be elected for one-year or two-year terms, so that ultimately the terms of not more than one-half of the Directors (exclusive of Senior Directors) expire each year. Directors shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until their death, resignation or removal.

6. Vacancies. A vacancy in the Board of Directors, including a vacancy created by an increase in the number of Directors, shall be filled by the Board of Directors of ACB. A Director so elected shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

7. Reimbursement. Members of the Board of Directors shall receive no compensation for their services but, by resolution of the Board of Directors, may be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses paid while acting on behalf of the Foundation. Nothing herein shall preclude any Director from serving the Foundation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefore as authorized by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

Meetings of Directors

1. Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors may hold meetings, annual, regular, or special, either within or without the State of Virginia.

2. Annual Meetings. The Board of Directors shall hold a regular annual meeting at a time and place set by the Board of Directors. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each Director at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the meeting.

3. Regular Meetings. Additional regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Notice of such a meeting shall be given to each Director at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting.

4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chair of the Board of Directors, or two Directors, on at least ten (10) days notice to each Director.

5. Quorum; Vote; Adjournment. The Chair of the Board of Directors shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall preside and in the absence of the Vice Chair the Secretary shall preside. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the presence of a majority of the Directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. There shall be no voting by proxy unless the Chair determines otherwise. The affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the affirmative vote of a greater number of Directors is specifically required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the Board of Directors, the Directors present may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present.

6. Action by Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee may be taken without a meeting if written consents setting forth the action taken are signed and dated by all of the members of the Board of Directors or of such committee, as the case may be. Such consents (which may be one instrument or several instruments) shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or of the committee. Unless otherwise specified in such consents, the effective date of any action so taken is the date on which the last Director signs the consents. Any action so taken shall have the effect of a vote taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Such consents may also be provided by email communication from the Director if approved by the Chair.

7. Meetings by Telephone. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be by telephone, and the members of the Board of Directors or of any committee may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Insurance and Indemnification

1. Generally. The Foundation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, or administrative or investigative, other than an action by or upon a right of the Foundation by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director, officer, member of a committee, employee or agent of the Foundation (hereafter “Covered Person”), against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Foundation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person’s conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a pleas of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Foundation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such person’s conduct was unlawful.

2. Negligence or Misconduct. The Foundation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action by or upon a right of the Foundation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Covered Person, against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner, such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Foundation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which person shall have adjudged by a final court order to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the Foundation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

3. Success on the Merits. To the extent that a Covered Person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceedings referred to in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such persons shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

4. Board of Directors Authorization. Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the Foundation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Covered Persons is proper in the circumstances because such persons has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, as the case may be.

5. Advance Payment. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceedings may (but is not required to) be paid by the Foundation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Article VIII upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Foundation as authorized in this Article VIII.

6. Nonexclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of disinterested Directors, statute, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to hold the office which caused him to be a Covered Person and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not restrict the power of the disinterested Directors to make any indemnification permitted by law. No amendments of these Bylaws shall reduce the extent of indemnification with respect to any person who was or is a Covered Persons as to any act or occurrence that occurred prior to such amendment.

7. Insurance. The Foundation shall purchase and maintain or cause to be provided and maintained insurance, in such amounts and on such terms as the Board of Directors shall determine in its sole discretion, on behalf of an individual who is or was a Covered Person, or is or was serving at the request of the Foundation as a Director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic foundation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in that capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Foundation would have power to indemnify him or her against such liability pursuant to applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. The rights of the Foundation in and to the proceeds of any such insurance shall at all times be subordinate to the rights of the Directors, Officers, employees and agents insured thereby.

8. Notification. As a condition precedent to a Covered Person's right to be indemnified and defended, such Covered Person must notify the Foundation in writing as soon as practicable of any action, suit, proceeding or investigation involving such Covered Person for which indemnity will or could be sought. With respect to any action, suit, proceeding or investigation of which the Foundation is so notified, the Foundation will be entitled to participate therein as its own expense and/or to assume the defense thereof at its own expense, with legal counsel selected by the Foundation and reasonably acceptable to the Covered Person. After notice from the Foundation to the Covered Person of its election to assume such defense, the Foundation shall not be liable to the Covered Person for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the Covered Person in connection with such action, suit, proceeding or investigation, other than as provided below. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Article VIII, the Covered Person shall have the right to employ his or her own counsel in connection with such action, suit, proceeding or investigation, but the fees and expenses of such counsel incurred after notice of the Foundation of its assumption of the defense thereof shall be at the expense of the Covered Person unless (i) the employment of counsel by the Covered Person has been authorized by the Foundation, (ii) the Foundation shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest or position on any significant issue between the Foundation and the Covered Person in the conduct of the defense of such action, suit, proceeding or investigation, or (iii) the Foundation shall not in fact have employed counsel to assume the defense of such action, suit, proceeding or investigation, in each of which cases the fees and expenses of counsel for the Covered Person shall be at the expenses of the Foundation. The Foundation shall not be required to indemnify the Covered Person under this Article VIII for any amounts paid in settlement of any action, suit, proceeding or investigation effected without the Foundation's written consent. The Foundation shall not settle any action, suit, proceeding or investigation in any manner which would impose any unindemnified monetary penalty, a non-monetary penalty or any limitation on the Covered Person without the Covered Person's written consent. Neither the Foundation nor the Covered Person will unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to any proposed settlement.

ARTICLE IX

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Foundation shall be set by resolution of the Board of Directors.
